

LEARNING LAB SERIES

UNHCR-WFP Joint Analytical Framework (JAF)

The JAF Learning Labs are a series of online webinars designed to enhance the familiarity of UNHCR and WFP staff with the Joint Analytical Framework (JAF).

Each webinar is scheduled for 45 minutes.

1

JAN
2024

GETTING STARTED WITH THE JAF

- When and how to use the JAF
- Defining objectives, scope and variables
- Assessing existing data and identifying gaps

2

JAN
2024

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE DESK REVIEW

- What does a desk review involve?
- How a desk review can inform data collection and analysis

3

FEB
2024

QUANTITATIVE DATA COLLECTION AND ANALYSIS

- Choosing variables and indicators for your context
- Structuring the analysis plan
- Developing quantitative questionnaires

4

FEB
2024

QUALITATIVE DATA COLLECTION AND ANALYSIS

- Understanding the importance of qualitative data in your context
- Communicating with communities, setting up focus group discussions and key informant interviews

5

MARCH
2024

LIVELIHOODS ADD-ON MODULE

- Overview, what it involves, when and how to use it
- Linking the analysis with specific self-reliance programmes
- Quantitative and qualitative data collection and analysis

6

MARCH
2024

USING JAF FINDINGS TO INFORM JOINT PROGRAMMING

- Informing UNHCR and WFP programming, as well as mainstreaming findings with relevant stakeholders
- Example of use